NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine Salamanders" has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.
W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.
Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.
Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.
N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

The disclosures of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton are likely to produce a very serious collision between them and Gen. Howard, the Chief Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau. His off hand, hasty denials of the positive statements of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton are unfortunate, and not calculated to impress the public very favorably with his prudence and forecaste. Gen. Howard, we know, enjoyed a very high reputation among the officers and soldiers of his command, for personal honor and piety, and we should regret that he should do anything to forfeit that confidence. Moreover, there is nothing wrong in attempting to defend the characters of his subordinates from unjust imputations, when he knows them to have been men of integrity and character; but the known imbecility and way wardness of human nature, and the liability of even preachers of the gospel to "fall from grace," ought to make every man, no less than Gen. Howard, cautious in contradicting specific facts, stated by those in the official position of such men as Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, before they are put in possession of irrefragable proofs to the contrary.

But, we remember, there may be an apology for preachers and men schooled in the semi-Bible, semi-infidel moral philosphy of ultra-abolitionism. Men and preachers, too, who teach that "the end justifies the means," and that the uncivilized, unheard of barbarities, cruelties and atrocious inhumanities of Sherman's and Sheridan's soldiery and bummers, practiced upon the Southern people, are justified as legitimate means for putting down the Southern "rebellion," are quite prepared to believe or disbelieve anything. Such a philosophy, that makes saints, worthy of cannonization, of such men as Lloyd Garrison, Abner Kneeland, Theodore Parker, Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner and Thaddeus Stevens, would not hesitate to whitewash the devil as an angel of light, (because being generally reported to be black,) if by any means he could be shown to be the special patron of the negro race.

Yet we are not prepared to believe, upon the knowledge of him we have personally, though it is very small, that Gen. Whittlesey or his subordinates are all bad men. We love to look at the best side of human nature, and, especially, we will not condemn men occupying their positions, until they have been heard, and until the proof of their infidelity in office is manifest.

Yet every one must be forced to admit, that the showing of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton is exceedingly unfavorable to every man connected with the Freedman's Bureau in the Eastern part of the State. There are two points especially, which Gen. Whittlesey ought to make haste to clear up, if he would have the respect and confidence of honorable men. The first is, his denial and his subsequent retraxit, when asked if he knew if any officers of the Bureau were engaged in farming? Secondly, his summary disposal of the case of the killing of the negro by the order of Capt. James.

For it must be understood, that the statements of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton are not made upon the mere testimony of fault-finders, and dissatisfied and prejudiced planters, as Gen. Howard charges. So far as we know, or it can be shown, those Generals resorted to any and all sources of information. Never did a Commission perform its duty more honorably and promptly. They consulted the Bureau officers themselves, the military, gentlemen of known character, both native and Northern, farmers, and especially the freedmen themselves, often on oath, whose immaculate purity, we suppose, Gen. Howard will not call in question. When they discovered that the testimony from these sources conflicted, they went back to the Bureau officers themselves, for the correction of errors. Hence, ordinary candor compelled Gen. Howard and the public to receive their statements unhesitatingly, or at least to suspend judgment, until proof to the contrary was presented.

That the statements of the Commissioners were not made under the influence of prejudice, is evident from the unqualified endorsement and approval of Col. Cilley and his administration, in the Western District of the State.

There is one point, however, in which we differ with Gens. Steedman and Fullerton. We do not see any impropriety, if Gen. Howard consented that the officers of his Bureau should engage in farming and planting, provided they did not allow it to interfere with the duties of their office, and provided they complied with the same terms of contract, imposed the same obligations on the freedmen and the same penalties and forfeitures, which they required of the planters and people of the State, and, provided further, the government did not suffer from it. If the planters, the freedmen and the government have suffered, it was not necessary—nor is the mere fact of their becoming planters, chargeable with these results. Our people had lands which they could not cultivate. Many had not the means, and many doubted their ability to hire or manage the freedmen. It was therefore proper, that others should undertake it, who felt they could succeed in it, and thus, in benefitting themselves, they could help the people and assist in teaching the freedmen how they could labor and yet be free men. We see no wrong in this. But that some have acted badly in this matter, is apparent to every one.

Finally, the facts elicited by the investigation of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, we hope, will lead to correct conclusions upon the real character of the Freedmen's Bureau. Our own convictions are decided, that the Freedmen's Bureau, as authorized by law and as conducted by Gen. Howard, has been a blunder, a positive evil, to both black and white, and seriously complicating in its future influence. The same objections lie against the Civil Rights bill, in its unconstitutional intringements upon the State Courts.

Every humane and just man is bound to admit, that when the government determined to free the slaves coming into the lines of the Federal armies and finally to abolish slavery altogether, (its right to do this we do not now consider) the highest moral obligation rested upon the government, at once, to provide for their protection and support, until their status could be established. The Freedman's Bureau should therefore, have been a benevolent or elecmosynary institution, limited solely to the duty of providing for their necessary wants, their sanitary condition and their instruction. The institution was ruined by clothing its officers with judicial powers, and from this all its evils have flowed. As subjects of law, the blacks should have been made at once amenable to the military law, just as the whites were, subject to the same military authorities, so long as military or martial law existed, and then to have been transferred to the jurisdiction of the civil State Courts along with the whites. The civil right's bill exhibits both the same bad, spirit and the same lack of statesmanship in the Congress, and both will prove an irremediable evil until repealed. Nothing can prove more detrimental to the peace of the country, than the complication of judicial jurisdiction over the two races in the same section or territory.

If the Freedman's Bureau had been confined simply to the benevolent designs of the government, the officers sent out by Gen. Howard might have fulfilled their mission properly, supposing them to have been men of ordinary capacity and integrity; but having imposed upon them the higher and more responsible duty of administering the law, when many of them were mere tyros, nay were ignorant of law, human or divine, military or civil, except perhaps a few snatches of the moral law of ultra abolitionism, they have made sad work of the whole affair, and brought the Bureau, themselves and the government into disrepute. But such must be the bad end of all the attempts at statesmanship of the Radicals or ultra abolitionists.

THE DEFECTION, as the Jacobins style it, of Gov. Swann, of Maryland; Webster, Collector of the Port of Baltimore; Lieut. Gov. Cox; Purnell, Postmaster of the city of Baltimore, and sundry officials formerly in high repute with the Radicals, has left the prospects of the Jacobins very blue indeed. The Baltimore American and the Washington Chronicle vie with each other in bemoaning the prospects of their party, and anathematizing the office-holders who have deserted the policy of Congress for that of the President.

THE LATE HON. GEO. E. BADGER.—The last N. C. Presbyterian contains an extended, just and glowing eulogium upon our late distinguished, fellow-citizen, Mr. Badger, over the signature of "H." We shall take pleasure in transferring it to our columns to-morrow.

CONGRESS.—The Senate, on Friday, passed the West Point appropiation bill, with a provision prohibiting the appointment of any cadet who served in the Confederate army or navy.—Small!

THE VETO message states the case against the admission of Colorado so strongly as to close discussion. The N. Y. Tribune admits the force of the President's objections, but thinks the question too small a one for a veto. The making or unmaking of States has come to be a trivial thing in these latter days.

GOLD closed in New York, at latest advices, at 139¼. Cotton was firm at 35 @ 36 cents. Flour had declined 10 @ 15 cents.

RAIL ROAD CONVENTION.—At the late Convention of Railroad Presidents and managers of Steamboat lines, &c., in Richmond, a system of through tickets from New York to New Orleans was agreed upon. A system of through checks for baggage between the same points was also devised.

THE BOARD of AGENTS of the fund set apart by the various laws for the benefit of the disabled soldiers and seamen met in Washington, on Thursday last. Butler was chosen President. The fund, it is estimated, will reach six millions of dollars. Butler proved himself to be an expert financier in New Orleans.

"In a letter to a United States Senator, Ex-Gov. Holden says: "Hundreds of people are daily leaving for the Northwest, and that unless protection is speedily afforded, those remaining will be forced to join in the exodus."

We find the following paragraph going the rounds of the papers. Will the Standard state whether the sentiment attributed to Gov. Holden is genuine?

Trial of Maj. Gee.

It has been a matter of sincrere regret to us, that we have been unable from want of space to furnish our readers with a report of this very interesting case, which has now been in progress for several months. The evidence in favor of this officer is very strong: even the testimony of those who attempted to fasten upon Major Gee expressions and acts of cruelty has been rendered valueless to prosecution, by their failure to connect them with that officer, and the evidence of those persons, from both Federal and Confederate armies, who were connected directly or indirectly with Major Gee, show that the care and protection of the unfortunate prisoners, who were under his charge, was his constant thought and effort.—Wil. Journal.

FARE REDUCED.—The fare between Petersburg and Norfolk, on the Petersburg and Norfolk railroad, has been reduced from $4 to $3. This is a move in the right direction, and other railroads might advantagesously, both to themselves and the public, take similar action.

The Danville Times states that an officer of the United States army having advertised for recruits in that town, several young men from the surrounding country have entered the service.

The 31st of December is the favorite day for getting married in Scotland, and fully one twentieth of the weddings of the year occurred on that day.

An Irish paper says that one expected and curious effect of the cattle disease in England has been to raise the value of goats to an extraordinary degree.

One hundred and fifty United States Treasury clerks will be discharged at Washington on the 31st, owing to the decrease in business of that department.

The statement that mules in Louisiana swell up with disorder and explode with a noise like the report of a musket, is probably a stretch of the imagination.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Heaven help the heart of that forsaken son of North Carolina, who can look back with demoniac glee upon her deep humiliation, "just twelve months ago yesterday," and desire those days to return! But that is a mis-nomer. That man has no heart.—If he ever could boast of that commodity, it has been so frozen over, so shrivelled up and withered by an insane and consuming selfishness, that it no longer deserves the name, whatever it may have been "then." Heaven spare us, and all peoples, from the crushing and grinding power of such an avalanche as then rendered us so submissive, that we were scarcely responsible for anything done or said at that terrible season! It may be doubted whether the test oath, even, would then have been regarded as very disreputable. We would not, at least, have opposed it then. It would have never been mentioned with disrespect, because it was not even thought of. We would not then have been great sticklers about the terms of our restoration to the Union. It was no time to talk about terms. Our talk was about life, of bread, of our children, and little cared we then about discussing our constitutional rights. There is no telling how much dirt we might then have consented to eat. We might, in our desperation, have consented to swallow at once the quantity said to be allotted to each for his life time.—Possibly we might have been ready, too, to swear that we really loved it, like some who say that in substance now, when the pressure is over. We can feel no very great respect for these patriotic dirt-eaters who profess to love the article per se.

That "true Unionist," who whines so piteously about being "cowed proscribed, under the ban socially, pecuniarily and politically," and so forth, seems to have no bowels for his brethren, who, in their great agony, "twelve months ago yesterday," felt and confessed themselves crushed and ruined, and then sometimes said and did things, wildly, neglectingly, they knew not what. Can he not find in some corner of his heart a little sympathy for his weak brethren? Does he remember any time, within the last two or three years, when he was himself somewhat shaky about the knees? Can he remember that he ever excused himself for glaring inconsistencies in his own published sentiments, by alleging that he was compelled by a power which he called a military despotism, to speak and write, and publish, too, what his soul abhorred? He will remember all this.—May not this memory teach him that it is possible that the manhood of a people may be awed into an abject submission during the presence of a large and victorious army, who, in the pride of triumph, brook no opposition, and allow no word to be spoken against any of their acts? Will he indulgently consider that there may have been then a shrinking, spiritless, unquestioning sinking of the heart produced by the surrounding terror, which those who once were, or even ever expect to be free, ought not to indulge? Can it delight him that we were crushed? And does it grieve him that the unlooked for and patriotic kindness of our President and his Cabinet, and the considerate soldierly forbearance of the army (the brave are always generous) have encouraged us once more to feel like freemen? Is he willing to forgive the great Commander-in-Chief and his great army for exercising towards us that noble and truly British generosity which knows no difference

We hope the Ex-Provisional Governor will pardon the President for moving too fast [before the Governor, so-called, was ready] in kindly sentiments towards the section which gave him birth, and particularly towards North Carolina, his good old mother, whom he felt that it might be a little unfilial to scourge with too many stripes. Having already given her full thirty nine, well laid on, he was therewith content. Not so that other son of hers. He is not satisfied yet. He would repeat the dose.—He has enemies yet to punish. He has been irreverently jeered at and snubbed by divers individuals, and he is particularly venomous and unforgiving. He is not so easily pacified. The unpardonable sin is one of mathematics. Majorities of 35,000 and even of 7,500 are very uncomfortable to small men of large ambition. It is a puzzling problem. Let North Carolina only expunge this distasteful record and reverse her judgment, and all will be right in a twinkling. Reconstruction and restoration would be an accomplished fact in about three days.—"Walk in, gentlemen, hang up your hats, and be happy, every mother's son of you!" But oh! ye generation of vipers, who voted the "Worth and stay out" ticket, aint you all catching the d—distressingest cold out there? But ye would have it so! Had you only elected the Ex-Provisional, how snugly would ye all now be nestling under the soft wings of Thaddeus of Warsaw, and the great Bay State Charlemagne!

This remarkably accurate and excruciatingly candid gentleman bravely asserts that the Sentinel, Gov. Worth, and others, are the worst enemies the President's plan has in this State, and stoutly charges that they refuse to carry it out! Strange news, this, to these gentlemen, who have labored, with might and main, to carry out that plan, ever since it was first announced. Let these worthy gentlemen possess their souls in peace. This is no gigantic lie, manufactured by the Ex-Provisional Governor, to accomplish a purpose. It would be neither respectful nor polite to suppose that. It is only one of those very frequent, but unaccountable hallucinations that periodically bewilder and bother the brain of that ambitious, but well meaning quondam functionary. Its periodicity seems to be regulated by the dog days, in conjunction with State elections. It is a case deserving pity—but no reproach. He cannot help his infirmity. He is as thoroughly persuaded of its truth as if he had just drawn it out of the well in a patent bucket. It is only a small error of judgment, affecting only about 999 out of every 1000 of Governor Worth's friends, such as afflicted him at the close of his contest with Gov. Vance, when he asserted that he was sure he had beaten old Buncombe 10,000, if not 20,000 votes. The mistake was, that Buncombe beat him about 35,000. A similar error, but not so large, occurred in his dispatch to the President announcing his own certain election. All innocent mistakes—but mistakes, nevertheless.—Such will happen sometimes in the very best circles. Finally, people do not always lie, when their assertions are abominably untrue. We affirm that the above assertion of the Ex-Provisional is only an abominable mistake—by no manner of means could it properly be called a falsehood.

It seems that we sinners—rebels unpardoned and as it were uncercumcised—have not the privilege of abusing the Radicals.

We may not even imitate our great friend the President, because he is loyal and we are not.—"He has a right to speak and denounce—for he is loyal." Very well, Mr. Ex. P. G., if we are not sufficiently loyal to cuss the radicals, you are. Why then do not you berate the radicals, or some of them, after the fashion of our mutual friend Andy? You have a loose tongue; let it wag. Again, "He is an unconditional Union man." So are you, Mr. Ex. P. G. Cuss away, then! Do it for all the family. We shall all feel better. But you do not, and won't even complain of the abominable doings in Congress—particularly you touch the Senate very gingerly. Why is this? Have Senators power over nominations?

Moreover, there is some big barking at the White House and thereabouts; for lo! "the master of the White House growls, and every little secession flee on the plantation barks and snaps." Hurra! for our Jowler! Where is he, about that time of multitudinous barking?—Messrs. Editors, please do not tell on him, but I will inform you why John Smith says he won't open his mouth at the Senate aforesaid. John says that a distinguished friend of his, who has been on to Washington city, expects to be nominated by the President to the Senate for some Foreign Mission, and he thinks it will not be worth much without the ratification of that dignified body. John Smith likens the case to a clown in the Circus, whom he saw try to ride two horses at the same time. It was no go.—The clown got a tumble, and the little boys laughed; also the niggers, (formerly so-called.) But it was no fun to the clown. He was sullen and evidently disappointed. Mem: Nobody can ride two horses at once, specially if the horses are fractious, and won't run together!—Tis'nt "accordin to natur." Better not try it. Your might get a bruise, and a tumble, and tear your trowsers besides. Stick to Andy—our Andy. Best ye can do. Dont try to soft-solder the Senate. They are old birds; cant catch 'em. They can see through you too easy.

This is good advice, and not a red charged tor it. But the Ex. P. G. won't take it. Good bye, Ex. P. G.! Be wise, and do not try to ride two horses at once. It can't be done.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday, May 21, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FORTY-NINTH DAY.

[CONCLUDED.]

THURSDAY, May 17, 1866.

Samuel Reeves, Farmer, Salisbury.—I had three plantations, while the prisoners of war were at Salisbury. Major Myers called upon Shafer and myself to aid him all we could,—to give him what we had, and to advise him. We called on him and said it was an outrage that more prisoners should be brought. We got all we possibly could. I slaughtered all my beeves that were fit and 115 besides. I killed my calves. He wanted everything that was fit to eat, for the prisoners.

I had loaned part of my bacon, and asked Myers to let me keep the offal; but he would not let me have it.

Our teams were impressed by Capt. Goodman. We gave the names of all in the county having teams. Men were afraid to go into town.

There was a great scarcity in grain and great difficulty in getting it. A meeting was held to regulate the prices. Committees were appointed in each district to get provisions for Major Myers.

These teams that were impressed hauled wood. My team, I know, hauled into the garrison. Capt. Goodman sent for me to get straw. He said he was worried to death. I let him have a few stacks. He called again on me for straw. I afterwards hauled straw for him.—Hauled a good deal. Capt. Goodman sent to know if I knew where there was straw; he was obliged to have it.

Myers borrowed supplies. Don't think he paid any back while the prisoners were there.

In 1864, Mr. Cubbins went to Chester, S. C., to get corn for the poor and soldiers' wives.

The people complained if there were more prisoners brought there, they would have to perish.

They complained of Maj. Gee's stopping the firing.

Myers told Mr. Trot to take every thing that possibly could be spared. There was a great complaint. A cow was left for four in a family.

Cross-Examined.—I don't think there was much straw in the country. The yield of grain was not good. Never was good. The 68th regiment stole some stacks. I gave 30 or 40 names to the quartermaster.

Jethro Rumple, Salisbury, minister.—About the first of October, I received $500 in Confederate money from Dr. Moore, of Richmond, to be distributed among ———. (Objected to.) A letter dated the 20th. October, (witness reads the letter from Rev. T. I. Moore, to inquire about a prisoner of war named Allen.) I went to the prison two or three times, and after about three weeks he was brought to the gate. In the meantime his letter came, asking me to give him assistance. I had an interview with him and offered him money, bed-covering and clothing. He refused, stating that he was not suffering as much as others. I informed Dr. Moore of it. The prisoner said he had been sick and had not seen the notice on the bulletin board. I had no opposition; the officers rendered me all the assistance that was necessary. The citizens complained that the prisoners of war were sent there, and that so many were in the streets, they feared some damage might be done to the town. I saw them coming to get water when I went on that side of town.

On the day of the outbreak I was at the prison, 15 or 20 minutes after the firing ceased. I saw Major Gee among the prisoners alone, talking to them in an under tone. I understood him to say, "after all I have done for you, this is the result!"

I think contributions for Lee's army were taken up that winter.

Dr. Currey was in the habit of going on the street and purchasing whatever he could from wagons, for the hospital.

To Court.—I went twice to the prison hospitals, to the wooden building and to the ground floor of the brick building. The patients had bunks, beds of straw and some covering. There was not a great deal of difference between them and the outside hospital.—Those inside were not clean, nor were the patients.

I held service there. I went down at the time of the outbreak to assist in keeping the prisoners in. I had a shot gun; I did not shoot.

Jas. H. Ennis, Salisbury, Mayor.—I went into Capt. Goodman's office one day; I heard Major Gee say: 'I must have the straw.' Capt. Goodman said he couldn't get it. Maj. Gee said he would give him one hundred bayonets. He wrote the order. His tone was loud and high. Think it was in November 1864. He further remarked: 'I made a demand of you yesterday for some wagons and you didn't send them.'—Goodman said it was Sunday. Major Gee said he had as great a regard for Sunday as any body, but such works of necessity and charity must be done.

As he went out of the door, Major Gee said: 'There will be a bigger fuss about Salisbury than there ever has been, if these prisoners are not attended to.'

I was in Major Myers' commissary Department. I never saw much on hand after the prisoners arrived. There might have been a few barrels of flour. Before they came I have seen it piled up so that I was afraid it would break the floor.

It was common to see prisoners of war go for water; not so much so as citizens. There was a guard with them. Can't say how long it continued.

I gave Goodman permission to get wood off my land—to cut as much as he wanted for a week.

I had a conversation with Capt. McCoy, Gen. Winder's aid, to find the value of the garrison property. He said Winder wanted to sell it, that the prisoners were going to be removed. The poor were supplied by a Commissioner. I have never known such scarcity in that country, before or since.

Waggons were impressed to haul wood. I don't know to what extent. There was a general dread of the prisoners breaking out. The insufficiency of the surroundings was well known.

Cross-Examined.—My land was on the edge of the town, about a mile from the prison. I don't know much they cut. It was as near as any he could have got. There is wood land about Salisbury. The supply of water in town is plenty. Not enough to have supplied the garrison.

Re-Direct.—My impression is that the government owned from 8 to 12 acres where the prison was located.

Court adjourned.

FIFTIETH DAY.

FRIDAY, May 18th., 1866.

A. P. Crabtree, Greensboro'.—Clerk, 20 years old, company clerk, Co. C, Freeman's battalion. Was at Salisbury 12 months from 1st. May, 1864. My duties to make out rolls, get mail and make out requisitions for the company.—During the time the prisoners of war were at Salisbury our ration was ½ lb bacon, 1 lb flour or ½ lb meal. Sometimes drew salt. Drew sorghum when we did'nt get meat. We went without for 3 days when we were at Murphey's grove. Sometimes we were unable to draw anything for 2 or 3 days on several occasions; there were times when we did not get meat or sorghum in lieu of it.

To get provisions, I used to make out requisitions for 10 or 15 more men than we had; our rations would not hold out, and I was compelled to do it; my officers knew it; my mess used to receive boxes every day or so; I was hungry at least 8 days out of ten. Have been on guard. Instructions, the sentinel told me, were just to keep the prisoners in. If the prisoners came within 10 feet of the dead line to order them back three times and then fire.

I saw the prisoners of war arrive. A great many were unable to walk, had to be carried in. While I was at headquarters, Keeling reported to Maj. Gee the number of cords he issued. Maj. Gee said give them all you can. If we can't give them anything else, give them plenty of wood.

Kness reported to Maj. Gee that he could not get rations. Maj. Gee put on his over-coat and said he'd see if he could not get some, that the prisoners were in need.

Maj. Myers said he had 40 bbls of flour at Concord and could not get it down. Maj. Gee said if it was in his power, he would press a train.

When we were out of wood, we would cut down trees against orders, in Murphey's grove. We used to steal rails. We all would go into one tent.

I have seen prisoners bringing in provisions at the headquarter gate. Maj. Gee was near. Never heard it objected to. One detective reported pies in a bucket and whiskey. The whiskey was taken away. I have heard Maj. Gee say he did not care, so that they did not bring in whiskey. Have heard him say so to the detectives. He was talking all the time about the prisoners' suffering. That he did not want to stay there.

Twice Capt. Fuqua was there, there was such conversation. There was an order not to buy any clothing from prisoners, from General B. Johnson.

Nichols used to report at night the rations issued during the day. Maj. Gee said to give them all he could.

Maj. Gee wore a glazed cap, grey jacket with star and blue pants, an over-coat, citizen's.

Major Gee had very little wood in his own office. I have known him to speak to Fuqua about it, that he could not get any. I have heard Morfit say Major Gee had no control over him.

They used to furlough men to get shoes.—Some had no shoes in my company.

I have helped to make pills, to get my dinner. I have seen no placard signed by Major Gee for recruits.

Have heard him say he had no opinion of those men who deserted.

In the Dispensary I have seen arrow-root fixed up for the sick.

The duty of the police cart was to bring out the dirt and trash—used to come out through the water-gate.

Mr. Rumple came to bring money to a prisoner of war. Have seen boxes come in. Prisoners used to go to town for water.

Cross-Examined.—The men of my company from North Carolina. The prisoners of war commenced coming sometime before Christmas; went away in February. I was acting Company Clerk nearly all the time; my headquarters were at my Company. When I had no duty there, I was over at headquarters, acting as sergeant-major, 8 or 10 days. We had a few axes in my company, 4 perhaps. The trees in the grove were large. It was against orders to cut any. We were short of flour or rice every day. We used to get ½ lb. flour—about half the time we received less than that. There were several instances when we received none at all, 10 or 15 days in all. Very often without any meat.—Have eaten 2 days rations at one meal, and when I didn't draw, they told me that they did not have it.

I don't know how much there was of the clothing from the North. It was piled up, 500 pieces,—pants, shirts, and, I think, a few blue blouses. I did not see it issued. It was issued to the paroled men. I have never known a citizen prevented from giving provisions to prisoners of war.

Re-Direct.—I don't know who issued the clothing. It was sent in while the U. S. officers were there.

Leonidas Brown, Salisbury,—Teacher. Was transportation clerk for Capt. Goodman. When he went to Richmond, he said there was nothing there but a few castings. General Martin came in person and demanded some axes. He said he had the right and power to do so. I went up stairs. Gen. Martin broke open some little closets and took some axes that were there, for a special purpose.

Capt. Goodman was so badly off, that he had a placard stuck up on the stairs, "No Money." There was no clothing to issue.

Capt. Goodman said he was using every means to obtain quartermaster supplies, and that he could not procure them.

I have seen Major Gee go into the Captain's office, and have heard him say that Major Gee annoyed him greatly for supplies.

There were placards on the walls relative to the impressment of wagons; that transportation was necessarily short, so that if farmers did not furnish teams, they would be impressed. I have seen soldiers come daily with their descriptive lists for money and clothing, but they were not supplied.

Don't think the firing on the day of the outbreak lasted more than five or ten minutes.

Transportation was very limited. We had some old stock turned over. Think we had about 13 teams. Think the government transportation was taken from Goodman about the first of October and their places supplied by broken down, spavined, wind-galled animals. Stables were torn down because of the diseased stock.

I was not able to purchase from the Commissary.

It was very difficult to get wood; I think there was more hauled by the waggons than by the train.

Cross-Examined.—I only know about the requisition from what the Captain said.

I heard nothing on the day of the outbreak before the firing of the cannon. Rolling stock on Western road was very limited.

The waggons hauled, I think, 13 cords a day. It went to the prison. The officers in town were supplied by these waggons and the hospitals.

Report shown to witness.—I don't think it is correct. Some teams were turned over to Capt. Bonizar and one or two to Myers.

To Court.—I don't know how many animals Capt. Goodman had, but I know that no such number as are on the paper were in the yard.—I am not prepared to swear that the return is incorrect.

Monford McKenzie, farmer, Rowan County. The crops of 63 and 64 were very short; that of 64 fell short a good half. The wheat was not one-third and of a very inferior quality. Our people had to send abroad for the poor of the country. We were taxed for the poor, tithed for the army and impressed. Two of my hands were impressed.

I have never witnessed such a condition of things. I never saw such distress.

Cross Examination.—I speak of Rowan and the adjoining counties. The commissioners were appointed to take care of the soldiers' wives.

Re-Direct.—This providing was for all the indigent.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The N. C. R. Road will issue round-tickets to persons attending the approaching Commencement at the University for one fare.

See Card of Mrs. Henry W. Miller. She can furnish excellent board, at moderate rates.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—We regret, exceedingly, that the pressure upon our columns compels us to omit an interesting account of the Baptist Sabbath School excursion, on Friday, kindly furnished us by a friend.—The young people had a most delightful time, and the old folks, too. The man who does not enjoy himself in contemplating the pleasures and pastimes of children, is neither to be envied or trusted.

The pupils and the teachers of the Sabbath Schools of Forestville, Warrenton and Franklin united with those of Raleigh in the celebration.

P. F. Pescud, Esq., acted as Chief Marshal on the occasion, on the part of the Raleigh School, and the vocal exercises were conducted under the auspicies of that indefatigable Sunday School Teacher, and lover of good music, W. J. Palmer, Esq., Superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Institute.

THE REMAINS of Lieut. William Henry Haywood reached this City, on Friday night. They were met at the Depot by a large number of his former friends and comrades, and escorted thence to the residence of his mother.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, from the Episcopal Church, where the impressive burial service was read by the Rev. Dr. Mason. There has rarely, if ever, been in this community, so solemn, touching and imposing a demonstration. The body of the gallant young soldier was followed to its final resting place by an immense concourse.—the ladies bearing bouquets and garlands with which to crown his sepulture, and the young men wearing the badge of mourning. It was an affecting spectacle,—honorable alike to the living and the dead.

Side by side now sleep, in the City Cemetery, the two brave boys and brothers, who early and ardently enlisted in our struggle and fell in the defence of their native soil. Forever green be the turf above them!

WE WERE pleased to see that a number of Federal officers uncovered their heads, as the funeral cortege of the late Lieut. Haywood passed through our streets on Saturday afternoon. The incident was most honorable to them, and we record it with gratification.

IMPROVING THE CAPITOL.—Legislators, and others accustomed to visit our State Capitol, will be agreeably surprised, on entering it now, to see the great improvement in those parts that have, so far, passed through the painter's hands. One hardly realizes that he is in the old Commons Hall.

The former Capitol building was burnt in 1831, we believe. The building of the new Capitol was commenced in 1833, and finished in 1840. The lower rooms were painted in a neat plain manner; but portions of the upper part were only "primed," as the painters style it; whilst some portions were left unpainted.—The parts that were painted had become very much soiled. All the interior is being repainted, and the effect is decidedly cheerful. It makes one feel that there are signs of "life in the old land" yet.

The Legislature appropriated $600 for this object, but it has proved too little to complete the work. It is to be hoped that there will be an additional appropriation, to go through with it.

The work has been well done; Gov. Worth and the artizans themselves deserve praise for it.

The grounds are being handsomely restored to their former condition.

The iron railing around the enclosure has never received a coat of paint. It would add a hundred per cent. to the appearance of our State House, if this were attended to, besides making the fence more durable. Especially would the general appearance of the place be improved, if the old brick building, on the S. E. corner of the grounds, were taken away,—an eye-sore at any time, and especially so since it has become so smoked and filthy by the uses it has been put to of late.

MR. WILLIS P. MOORE, who was recently tried before a Military Commission in Wilmington, for the murder of one Wesley Moore, has been acquitted. Gen. Ruger has approved the findings of the Court.

FEAST AND CONCERT IN WELDON.—We are requested to state that there will be a Feast and Concert in Weldon, on the 25th inst., for the purpose of raising funds to assist in erecting an Episcopal Church in that town. The President of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad has generously consented to give free tickets, going and returning, to persons desiring to attend.

THE LADIES of the Methodist Church in Salisbury will give a supper and entertainment in that town to-night, (Monday,) for the purpose of raising funds to purchase an organ for the Church. In addition to the supper, &c., there will be an address from Gov. Vance. Won't "Zeb" go it, before such an audience?

THE FIRE IN GOLDSBORO'.—We are indebted to Col. Pool, of the News, for the following account of the late destructive conflagration in Goldsboro. Our friends of the News have our warmest sympathies in their loss. We hope that they will soon be enabled to resume publication, under encouraging auspices:

GOLDSBORO, N. C. May 18th. 1861.

Messrs. Editors:—The office of the Goldsboro Daily News was totally destroyed by fire about one o'clock this morning. The loss of presses, type, material, books, &c., was total. There was no insurance. This falls very heavily upon Mr. Whitaker and myself.

The fire orginated in a store occupied as an Agricultural Warehouse and Hardware Store, in the buildings known as "Day's block." The office of the News was in the same block. The aggregate loss about seventeen thousand dollars. No insurance except upon the stock of J. G. Bowes.

Very respectfully,
S. D. POOL,
Editor Daily News.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—The different Rail Road companies have offered a free return ticket to all ministers and delegates attending the Convention to be held at Newbern, on the 30th of this month.

GENERAL NEWS.

We learn from the Augusta Constitutionalist, that T. W. Chichester, Esq. of that city, who was appointed by Governor Jenkins agent of Georgia, has made a temporary loan of $400,000, in the city of New York, at a low rate of interest, which it is expected will relieve the Governor in his financial matters, and enable him to purchase and distribute the corn authorized by the Legislature for the widows and disabled soldiers of the State. Bonds are now being engraved to be issued for the amount.

The Senate manifested a little spite against the President by laying his veto message upon the Colorado State bill upon the table, and proceeding to other business. This was contrary to usage, and also to the positive requirements of the constitution. Knowing that they could not pass this bill, as they did the civil rights bill, over the President's veto, they decline any consideration of the President's objection.—Cor. Balt. Sun.

The Radical press have felt the necessity of that notice of Gen. Hampton's letter on the burning of Columbia which the Radical Senate refused to take. But instead of demanding the investigation which Hampton asked, they are publishing the statements of unknown persons, whose word can avail nothing against Hampton's. The charge against Sherman still stands, and the present fluttering merely shows that it stings.

The late Memphis riot is thus explained: A Nashville paper says, Gen. Fisk has received a letter from Gen. Runkle, Superintendent of the Freedmen at Memphis, stating that the late difficulty had commenced between a squad of discharged colored soldiers and a party of policemen; that there was a good deal of whiskey at the bottom of the trouble; and that the negroes were most at fault at the commencement of the riot.

A LETTER from Washington states that the newspaper correspondents and editors sojourning at the capital, now charge, for preparing hour speeches for members of Congress, from $25 to $100, according to the reputation of the writer. Once a week—every Saturday—the members have a chance to "orate," and, in order to save time, some of the "lame ducks" ask permission to print, instead of speaking their pieces. These, at $25 apiece, do not make heavy inroads on their purses.

NEW DEFINITION OF PUBLIC PROPERTY.—A guard report made by a corporal of the 4th artillery to the Provost Marshal on Sunday last, reads thus: "Report of the guard of the 4th U. S. artillery, mounted at the Headquarters Department of Washington, D. C., on the 13th instant. for the protection of Hon. William H. Steward, Secretaty of State, and other public property."

The Philadelphia Press says that "Information upon which full reliance can be placed, proves that Andrew Johnson is resolved to remove Gen. Howard, the Christian Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, if he can find an excuse for so doing."

Our opinion is, that President Johnson will soon "remove" the Bureau itself.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says, in a very quiet way, that a number of the members of Congress are "as green as onion tops."

There were only six persons in Memphis, in 1861, that voted against secession. Now there are said to be not less than six hundred persons claiming to be one of the six.

The negroes have taken quiet possession of the gallery of the House of Representatives, large numbers of them bringing their dinners with them, "wrestling their hash," to the great disgust of the wives of the Republican members of Congress who are compelled to sit beside them.

The best joke, however, is the reported indignation of certain Jacobin M. C.'s at the application of three odorous "brudders" for permission to occupy berths in the sleeping car to Philadelphia, on a warm night last week.

Garters with diamond buckles are worn with the new hoops in Paris. It is impossible not to see that they are not introduced here yet.—Springfield Republican.

The Council Bluffs Nonpariel has the following:

OFFICIAL.—Married, at the residence of Mr. Ben Javis, in Marshalltown, Iowa, by the Rev. Mr. Willey, Joe Baugh (that's us) and Miss Mary C. Swanson (that's more of us.)

The Boston Journal, a rabid negro organ, says the country is sick of "honors to the memory of Stonewall Jackson." When alive, he made a Boston General very sick.

The Norfolk Day Book is pained to chronicle the rapid increase of crime perpetrated in Norfolk, Portsmouth and the surrounding country.

THERE is a child in Staunton two months and twenty days old, that can walk.

Dead ducks generally float. One sinks "Occasionally."—Louisville Journal.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vadey, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 46 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January, 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; as become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him three Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during he year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

AN ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons traveling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

J. H. HOPE.

Commission Business,

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

JOHN D. WHITFORD,
GEORGE W. DILL,
WM. C. WHITFORD.
